The idea of a draught conjures up in the French mind the specters of bronchitis and inflammation of the lungs, that fluxion de pottrine of which they speak with tragic face Price, $1.00. And yet they are constantly exposing them selves with seeming impunity to risks of another sort, which are often followed by very deplorable consequences to English people who are seduced by their example. For instance, they think nothing of dining on the terrace of a riverside restaurant in the lightest clothing in the evening of a hot autumns lay, when the temperature often drops man degrees seen after sunset, and a cold mist ris the candles are lighted, drinking their coffee and cognac or their chartrense, quite insen-sible, apparently, to the change of temperature. Perhaps their high spirits on such casions renders them weather proof. - Paris Letter.

A syndicate is engaged in gathering tarseed on Mare island, near San Fransisco, Cal., and drying it for medicinal purposes. Some genius proposes to introduce paper shirts. This might do for Japan, but would prove a "big thing" for the doctors, because rheumatism, etc. would become frequent. If, however, people would keep Salvatio Oil convenient, paper shirts might yet be convenient. It costs only 25 cents.

LOCAL NOTICES. Facts Worth Knowing. In all diseases of the nasal nucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritat-ing. The medical profession has been slow to learn this. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, pow-ders, syringes, astringents, or any similar applications, because they are all irritat ing, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces, and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical and

"The Devil and the Deep Sea."

The old story of the poor soul who was caught between "The devil and the deep sea," gets a new illustration from the dealing of doctors and drugs with malaria. The story is soon told: "My daughter," said a lady, "had been struggling with malaria for tour years. She was all the time out of health—poor appetite, disordered digestion, pale earthy color, pain in the head, limbs and back, and every now and then a right hard chill, followed by fever. Then we would send for our doctor and he would prescribe quinine, just as he did from the Mr. Dunn was called upon, and stated be had notice of the Most forth and luxury.

ECZEMA ERADICATED. Gentlemen—It is due you to say that I think I am entirely well of eccess after having taken Swift's Specific. I have been troubled with it very little in my face since last spring. At the beginning of cold weather last fall it made a slight appearance, but went away and mas never returned. S. S. S. no doubt broke it up at least it put my system in good condition and I got well. It also benefited my wife greatly in case of sick besidache, and made a perfect care of a breaking out on my little three year old daughter last summer.
